

Locking the courthouse doors is our attempt to prevent the "United States of America" from sentencing Edward Hasbrouck for refusing to register for the draft. We can no more allow the "United States," through this court, to sentence Edward Hasbrouck in our name than he could allow the "United States" to wage war in his name.

We have left you roses as a token of our hope for the peaceful resolution of human conflicts.

The Abolitionists

